

Rhyme Scheme:

Write Your Own Limerick

To get started let's use Edward Lear's limerick format as an example.
Fill in the blanks below. Try to make it rhyme!

There was a (an) _____ from/in _____ adjective noun (person or animal) noun (place)

Whose _____ was/were _____ noun (feature like a nose or foot) -ly adverb adjective

He/She/It _____
Add a sentence here about something that happened

And _____
Add more about what happened next

That _____ from/in _____ same adjective as first line same noun as first line same place as first line

Great Work! Now draw a picture for your limerick.
